FOOD AND BEVERAGE SERVICE PROFESSIONAL DIPLOMA

Crafting Exceptional Dining Experiences with Strategic Foresight

As a Graduate of the F&B Service Professional Diploma you will be proficient in the following activities and will be distinguished by the following behaviors:

- You will organize events according to an establishment's guidelines, and they ensure that the layout of the restaurant space is fitting and that the atmosphere is welcoming.
- You will create a pleasant atmosphere and ensure the well-being of your customers.
- You will identify the specific needs of their guests and take appropriate measures to satisfy them.
- You will prepare the Food & Beverage service, both in the daily service and for events, and you will advise customers on appropriate beverages. You will make blends and present cocktails, and then serve the beverages to customers.
- You will use reservation, order and cash register systems, establish bills and collect revenue.
- You will master the principles of hygiene and occupational safety. You will ensure that the value of premises, installations and appliances is preserved, and that energy and equipment are used economically.

This pathway includes three certification levels - Foundation, Intermediate, and Advanced - with a Professional Diploma achievable in 12–18 months. Every level duration is 6 months, in work based learning model: 3 months study + 3 month internship. Fast-track options are available for experienced professionals.

Admissions are open for intakes in October, January, March and July to motivated individuals aged 18 and above who are passionate about hospitality and eager to receive Swiss-standard vocational training.
